

Shields basketball toumey Saturday

The personnel at East Orange General Hospital will present the annual Kieran T. Shields Basketball Tournament, with funds raised to go to a scholarship fund in the late Orange police officer's name.

Shields, a detective with the Orange Police Department, was shot and killed in 2006, while pursuing a suspect.

Hospital staff will form a team, as will members of fire and police departments from Orange, East Orange, South Orange and Maplewood. The tournament will begin Saturday at 9 a.m. inside Orange High School. Tickets will be sold.
