

EAST ORANGE GENERAL HOSPITAL AUXILIARY ANNOUNCES 2010-2011 SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS ON JUNE 19TH

East Orange, N.J.; At its second annual spring luncheon held on June 19th at the East Orange Campus seniors or enrolled in 2- or 4-year degree program.

The purpose of the East Orange

Two outstanding high school seniors will receive scholarship honors during the second annual East Orange General Hospital Auxiliary Scholarship Luncheon.

High School Gymnasium from 12:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m., the East Orange General Hospital Auxiliary will award two $1,000 scholarships to area high school students entering college in the fall who plan to pursue 2- or 4-year degree programs.

The 2010-2011 scholarship winners are:

- Fabiola Pierre, a graduate of East Orange Campus High School, will be attending Fairleigh Dickinson University.

- Kimberly Monestime, a student at the Academy of Saint Elizabeth, will be attending the University of Scranton.

The East Orange General Hospital Auxiliary scholarships are awarded annually to local high school students, EOGH staff, Auxilians, volunteers or their children who are high school

General Hospital Auxiliary is to promote unity of action and render service to the Hospital, its patients and our community. The Auxiliary shall assist in promoting the cultural, educational, and economic health and welfare of the community.

The East Orange General Hospital Auxiliary provides a range of services which include fundraisers, raffles, and trips to benefit the hospital and its many wonderful programs and services. Proceeds raised by the Auxiliary go specifically towards the purchase of state-of-the-art equipment and other medical instruments to ensure our community continues to receive the high quality care they deserve.

For more information about the East Orange General Hospital Auxiliary and upcoming events, please call Tonya Hall at (973) 266-2980.