SINCE 1998

DECEMBER 2009

The December 2009 Employee of the Month is Evadney White, a Patient Care Technician from the Intensive Care Unit. Since being hired in April 1998, Evadney has been a loyal longstanding member of the EOGH family who is totally committed to providing excellent quality care to the patients entrusted in her care.

She is very dependable, reliable and hardworking. Evadney is described as a kind, compassionate person who is always approachable and understanding of the needs of patients and their relatives. She is an exceptional role model to her colleagues, professional at all times and is willing to take on any challenges that arise.

Additionally, Evadney is willing to help others. Her assistance is not just within her department but is extended to all members of the EOGH healthcare team. She truly has the desire to always do her best and provide excellent care.

Evadney goes above and beyond the call of duty to answer all questions and is a true asset to the ICU, various other clinical units she may float to and to the organization.

Congratulations, Evadney White on a job exceptionally well done!
