Employee of the Month

QUANIKA

MAXFIELD

AT EAST ORANGE
GENERAL HOSPITAL

SINCE 2004

FEBRUARY 2009

The February 2009 Employee of the Month is Patient Access Concierge, Quanika Maxfield. Since being hired on December 13, 2004, Quanika has been a delight to have at the concierge desk.

She is dependable, diligent, and always willing to go the extra mile. Quanika's can-do attitude, positive demeanor and high level of integrity have gone a long way. Her multitasking skills are a great asset to the team. She has redefined the meaning of being a helpful, patient-oriented concierge.

In her daily routine, Quanika is a resourceful problem solver. She is always exploring new initiatives to improve the access of patients, visitors and staff. Her accountability, compassion and safety consciousness puts our patients first. These attributes have gained her the appreciation and respect from employees across the board.

Quanika is a wonderful employee and a joy to have on the EOGH team. She is a natural team player and duly worthy to be our "Employee of the Month."

Congratulations Quanika Maxfield on a job exceptionally well done!
